

RUSSIAN RIVER VALLEY
ESTATE BOTTLED * GIANNA'S BLOCK
PETITE SIRAH

V. 2015

VINEYARDS: Named after the first born of the 6th generation, Gianna Foppiano, this is the oldest Petite Sirah block on our historic Russian River Valley estate. Planted in a traditional head pruned style by her Great Grandfather, Louis J Foppiano, these vines are old and gnarly. This particularly low yielding block produces the highest quality Petite Sirah compared to anywhere else on the estate.

WINEMAKING: Gianna's block is one of our oldest head trained vineyards. In the old California viticulture tradition, there are a few interplanted Zinfandel and Carignane among the Petite Sirah vines. This field blend makes this wine truly unique in color, aroma and flavor. After being hand sorted to remove any under or overripe clusters, the fruit was fermented in small open top fermenters and punched down and mixed several times daily to maximize the extraction of color and intense flavors. The wine was showing the most pleasant extraction after about 28 days in the fermenter so it was promptly drained and pressed into premium French oak barrels where it will age for 28 months.

TASTING NOTES: The 2015 growing season, like the 2014 and 2013, was ideal in its abundant sunshine. Gianna's Block yielded incredibly flavorful fruit this vintage which allowed us to produce a truly world class Petite Sirah. This wine enjoys complex aromatics including lavender, peppery sage and blackberry jam followed by subtle notes of dark chocolate and coffee. The palate is greeted by succulent dark fruit and perfectly integrated and composed oak followed by a long downy finish that is reminiscent of more chocolate and dark roast espresso.
